

THE Philharmonic Society of New York

FOUNDED 1842

Seventy-second Season

JOSEF STRANSKY, Conductor

SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS NOW OPEN

Twelve Thursday Evening, Sixteen Friday Afternoon and Twelve Sunday Afternoon Concerts, and One Young People's Concert in Carnegie Hall, New York. Five Sunday Afternoon Concerts in the Brooklyn Academy of Music; a series of Subscription Concerts in Baltimore and Washington; Tours including appearances in the New England, New York State, Middle Western and Canadian cities; and a Transcontinental Tour, New York to San Francisco.

SOLOISTS:

MISCHA ELMAN
CARL FLESCH
LEOPOLD KRAMER
JACQUES THIBAUD
HENRI LEON LEROY
TERESA CARRENO
MAX PAUER

HAROLD BAUER
BEATRICE HARRISON
JEAN GERARDY
LEO SCHULZ
XAVIER REITER
MARGARETE MATZENAUER
MME. GERVILLE-REACHE

MME. OTILLIE METZGER
MME. JULIA CULP
ALICE NIELSEN
JACQUES URLUS
KITTY CHEATHAM
THE ST. CECILIA CLUB
VICTOR HARRIS, Conductor.

And Others to be Announced Later.

Prospectus containing detailed information may be had at hotels, music stores and on application from FELIX F. LEIFELS, Manager, CARNEGIE HALL, New York.

DUTCH

ITALIAN

COLONIAL

CONVICT

"PO" WHITE TRASH

G. A. R.

JAPANESE

"Something Different" in High Class Entertainment

SUITABLE FOR

School, Church, Club or Charity

MARION WILSON

IN HER ORIGINAL AND REMARKABLE SERIES OF

COSTUMED CHARACTER STUDIES

HISTORICAL TYPES, PEOPLE IN FICTION,
"EVERYDAY FOLK" and CELEBRITIES OF THE HOUR.

Miss Wilson has appeared on the leading Entertainment and Chautauqua Courses throughout the country.

It is conceded she has created a field distinctly her own. You'll be interested to read the opinions of those who have heard her. A postal brings you illustrated information.

Miss Wilson writes most of the material used on her programs.

She is also author and producer of a series of UNIQUE ENTERTAINMENTS and

PAGEANTS FOR HOME TALENT

"Variganza," a "Folk Mote," and "The Harliquinada" are the latest. Circulars on request by addressing

STUDIOS: 601-602 CARNEGIE HALL, NEW YORK

MRS. ABRAHAM LINCOLN

COLLEGE BOY